

SIBERIAN ESKIMOS EXHIBITED IN SALT LAKE CITY

It is a strange scene that the stage of the Salt Palace theatre has been converted into—a scene so strange that it is positively unique and so far removed in its curious oddity from even the most pretentious of resort offerings that one can't even grasp it in one visit.

Imagine, if you can, a tribe of Siberian Eskimos found in the remotest regions of the far-off north, with their very huts, their distinctive garb, their strangely crude yet cunning utensils and weapons, their wolf dogs and malamutes, literally picked up and transplanted into America. Those who have fallen under the fascinating spell of Jack London's "Call of the Wild" and other northland tales, only need go to the Salt Palace this week to acquire a more vivid impression of that little known weird land of the midnight sun, with its strange people.

The real merit of the attraction lies in its realism. Everything is real. From "McGinty," the shrewd social, religious and political leader of the tribe, down to little 3-month-old "Seattle," who was born in the city of that name a few days after their arrival in this country, they are real Eskimos. Their odd but rich garb is made of the real skins and furs of the Siberian reindeer, the otter and seal. Their footwear is the real eskimauk.

Siberian Eskimo brought to America by Pacific-Yukon exposition management.

Their huts those that they fashioned and lived in at their far-off northern home.

In addition to portraying their native mode of life, a program is given bringing out various phases of their social and industrial sides. "McGinty" and Jokoki give a realistic illustration of a seal hunt, ending in the harpooning of a seal. Exhibitions of wrestling and feats of strength are given showing the remarkable physical powers of the men. Seven native dances, all to the accompaniment of the tom-tom and other weird instruments, are given by the entire tribe, and include the wind and storm dances, and the "Joy" dance, that is given in honor of the successful seal hunters on their return from an expedition.

Many other features are offered, but among them all that which will appeal most to the feminine portion of the audience, and especially to the children, are the quality, happy little boys and girls and babies of the tribe. Little "Seattle" is already the pet, and she is sure to be the center of attraction on the special school children's matinee that are to be given.

The Eskimo village was opened to the public last evening, and evening performances will be given during the remainder of the week.

ALL DISTRESS FROM INDIGESTION OR AN UPSET STOMACH VANISHES

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes indigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid, stomach gas and stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing biliousness, headaches, dizziness and indigestion, heartburn, nausea, breath, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of Stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour stomach, which belches gas and eructs undigested food or causing a feeling of nausea and miserableness.

All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take 10 cents to your Pharmacist for a case of Pape's Diaphepsin. Eat a triangle, and five minutes later your stomach will do what a healthy stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you realizing that you have a stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

RUDOWICZ SAFE FROM ALL HARM

Secretary Root Decides That the Case Is Not One Warranting Extradition.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Christian Rudowicz, whose extradition on charges of murder, arson and other crimes was demanded by the Russian government, and involving counter charges that the offenses were in furtherance of a political movement, will not be extradited. This decision was announced by Secretary of State Root today.

In effect the extradition was refused because the offense charged comes under the general prohibition against extradition in the treaty with Russia, which declares that if it be made to appear that extradition is sought with the view to try or punish for an offense of a political character, surrender shall not take place. The testimony taken in the case by United States Commissioner Foote at Chicago, it was held, upholds the views taken by the department, therefore the commissioner upheld the Russian government's demand.

Mr. Root declined to comment on the decision, pending formal notification to the Russian authorities of the department's decision.

The case aroused widespread interest, particularly in Chicago among the anti-Russian element, where a fund was raised in defense of the man.

No Precedent Established.

The action by the secretary, it is said, does not establish any precedent, as the case was regarded at the department as simply whether or not the case was one calling for extradition for an offense against the law, or whether it was one of political character.

For a political character, acknowledged member of the Social Democratic Labor party, a Russian revolutionary organization, with branches in all parts of the world, whose avowed purpose is the overthrow of political conditions in the Russian empire. He is charged with having murdered or participated in the murder of a man, his wife and a married daughter in one of the Baltic provinces in 1896. The next year he came to the United States and went to work in a large manufacturing establishment. At the hearing at Chicago testimony was offered by both Rudowicz and his witnesses that the order for killing these persons was issued on the ground that they were spies, not that they traveled around the country in this capacity, but they gave the names of persons taking part in revolutionary movements directed against the government. There was some discrepancy in the evidence as to whether the order to murder had been given by a county or state "group," which directs the operations of the various branches of the revolutionary party.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

The hearing of the case against Agnes McAndrews of the Palmer hotel, charged with violation of the quarantine ordinance by having taken down a quarantine flag without proper authority, took up most of the afternoon session in Judge Bowman's court yesterday. At the conclusion of the testimony, during which several of the witnesses were recalled to the stand, Judge Bowman announced that he would render his decision this afternoon.

Richard Welch, a one-armed mendicant, appeared in court yesterday under the double charge of drunkenness and peddling without a license. He is confined in the city jail pending his hearing this afternoon.

W. J. English considered that his merry vintage of Monday night was fully worth $5, and he let this amount remain with the city without appealing to offer any excuse for his blubious mood.

After seeing what happened to some sisters, Babe Rivers shies at the thought of appearing before Judge Bowman to answer to the charge of vagrancy, and yesterday filed an affidavit asking for a change of venue or trial before another judge. The affidavit sets forth that the defendant is of the belief that she could not get a fair and impartial trial before Judge Bowman.

When Patrolman Henry Betz undertook to act as the peacekeeper in a little row between Golden Young and another man Monday night, he regretted it almost immediately. He had barely stepped between the two men when Young, thinking of the interference by swinging a right hook to Betz's jaw. This annoyed Mr. Betz, and it was prompt arrest for Young. When his name was called yesterday to answer to the charge of battery he failed to respond and his $10 bail was declared forfeited.

DANGER IN LEGISLATION

Governor of California Sends Message to the Legislature on the Japanese Question.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 25.—With a warning against any anti-Japanese legislation, and the recommendation that the labor commissioner be given money to take a census of the Japanese in the state, Governor James N. Gillett sent a special message to the legislature today.

After stating that the bills introduced by Assemblyman A. N. Drew of Fresno, Senator J. B. Sanford of Ukiah and Assemblyman Grove L. Johnson of Sacramento are causing serious agitation, both here and in Japan, and have been the subject of an address to the national authorities by the Japanese government, the governor reviews the negotiations between the two powers to stop immigration.

The members of both branches sat silent while the message was being read and there was no demonstration at its conclusion.

The governor received another telegram this afternoon from President Roosevelt stating that a letter is on the way. The governor said he did not know the nature of the communication, but it probably deals with the Japanese question and with the charge of battery he failed to respond and his $10 bail was declared forfeited.

ANOTHER RAILWAY MERGER

Pennsylvania Obtains Control of the Chesapeake & Ohio and Branch Lines.

New York, Jan. 25.—The transfer of 340,000 shares of the stock of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad company to a syndicate headed by Edwin Hawley was announced by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. This is believed to give control of the road.

Associated with Mr. Hawley in the negotiations, it was stated, were Frank Trumbull, soon to resign the presidency of the Colorado & Southern, and F. W. Scott of Richmond, Va.

The Chesapeake & Ohio owns and operates through lease about 1,850 miles of road. Its chief points of contact are from Newport News, Va., and Washington, D. C., to Cincinnati and Louisville with numerous branch lines.

Of its capital stock there is outstanding about $20,000,000 in common shares, with only a nominal amount of preferred stock. Its bonded debt is very large and was recently increased by the issue of an additional $20,000,000.

It is reported as significant that Kuhn, Loeb & Co., through whom control of the property was secured, are the financial agents of the Pennsylvania.

WRECK ON UNION PACIFIC.

North Platte, Neb., Jan. 25.—Union Pacific passenger train No. 11 was wrecked this morning as it was entering the yards here. The fireman was instantly killed and the engine slightly hurt. Passengers escaped with a severe shaking up. The wreck was caused by a defective switch, which derailed the baggage car, causing the train to break in two and then double.

WHEN YOUR BACK ACHES

It is a Warning That the Kidneys Are Sick and Need Help.

A bad back turns every twenty-four hours into one dull round of pain and misery—you are lame in the morning, nagged all day by a dull, throbbing backache, can't rest in the evening or sleep well at night. It hurts to bend over, straighten up, get up from a chair, or lift even a light weight. Any sudden twist, turn or awkward movement sends a tearing twinge of pain through the weak spot.

Backache is really kidney-ache. The kidneys are in the small of the back, and any pain there is enough cause to suspect your kidneys. If the urine is discolored, or contains sandy sediment, or passes too frequently, then you have double proof.

Keep the kidneys well and the kidneys will keep you well. Well kidneys filter the blood and keep it pure. Diseased kidneys only partly purify the blood. Neglect weak kidneys and you invite uric acid poisoning, gravel, stone in the kidney, rheumatism, heart trouble, diabetes, Bright's disease, and a long list of other serious disorders now recognized as having their cause in kidney weakness.

At the first sign of backache or urinary disorders, give the kidneys quick help, not with plaster, liniments, nor any other outside applications, but with a special kidney medicine.

SALT LAKE CITY PROOF.

Benjamin Midgley, 523 South Second West street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "I wish to give Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit they deserve, and I only hope that others suffering as I did will be led to try this remedy through my endorsement. For three or four years I suffered from pain in my back and through my kidney regions. I tried one remedy after another without getting the least help, and at times it was all that I could do to attend to my work. The kidney secretions were disordered and the passages distressing. I was finally led to procure Doan's Kidney Pills and was gratified at the prompt relief they afforded. I used in all about four boxes and was completely cured of my trouble. Not a sign of it has ever reappeared."
